Human Rights Day

We will celebrate Human Rights day on Saturday, January 15, 2011, at Trinity United Methodist Church, beginning with breakfast at 9 a.m. CWU board members and cord builders are preparing the meal. As part of our worship service of celebration, Steve Schooler, Executive Director of Porchlight, will speak. Steve practiced law at Madison for twenty years before deciding to change careers and served on the Board of Directors for Transitional Housing, now Porchlight. He has received several awards recognizing his years of working with the homeless, the Drop-in Shelter, and renovation and maintenance projects for buildings owned and operated by Porchlight. At this celebration, we will also present the Human Rights Award to a well-deserving Madisonian. Join us for an inspiring beginning to the new year and the continuing work for rights and justice for all people.

December Forum

The first heavy snow of the season led to cancellation of the December Forum. Board members feared that early morning travel would either endanger or prevent both program presenters and attenders from getting to Christ Presbyterian for the morning event. Thanks to all board members and others who called and e-mailed to alert people to this situation.

Merry Christmas
